

CABNETLINK PRIVACY POLICY

PRIVACY & SECURITY

We think it's great that you're considering subscribing and using our Cabnetlink application. You may give us information about your company, users when, for example, you sign up for Cabnetlink. By giving us this information we can continue to deliver you the very best service and communication possible. We understand your company information is confidential and we are committed to protecting it.

We believe the new spam act is really important and we do everything by the book.

Not only because the law says so, but because it's the way we believe decent sensible companies should be working.

There are a few things that you need to know:

First, what we use the information for. We use it to process your transactions, to administer your account, to conduct credit and other checks, for our own internal purposes, and to help us to make Cabnetlink better. We may also use it to promote and market our application plus other future products. Secondly, sometimes we need to give your details to other people to perform services on our behalf or so that we can do what you have asked us to do. For example, we need to pass your details to your credit card company when you pay for your order. However, we would never authorize those people to use your information for any other purposes.

Thirdly, we do use cookies on the site.

Finally, if you ask us whether we hold personal information about you, we will tell you. You can also ask us for a copy of the information or to make corrections or changes to it.

Just email us at cabnetlink.com

We do change our privacy policy from time to time, so keep a look out for changes on our website. If you have any questions let us know!
